the Squatting Linux User Group welcomes you in our hacklab

L A G

hacking is ..
oh my! we share the binnenpret   BINNENPRET.nl
share similar interests, e. g. in electronics.
these rooms, open   Thursday and Saturday evening machines   17:00 – 23:00   14:00 - 23:00
files

your password for free WIFI is:
                                              somethingeasytoremember

so feel free to pass by for: installing linux, discussing technical or theoretical ideas, fix your laptop, learn to textile, build a bike, find parts, learn how to encrypt data, make experiments, deconstruct apparatuses, drink coffee, read a book, taste raspBerry, write a paper, scan a book, look at stuff through a microscope, fix your clothes, share files, take things apart, present something, add things to this list and share knowledge in any other way you want.
